Dr. Guysott's Improved Extract of YELLOW DOCK AND SARSAPARILLA!

MR. JOHN D. PARK—Dear Sir: It is with unutterable feelings of gratitude that I am able, through the Divine Providence of God, and by the wonder working agency of that excellent medicine, "Guysott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla," to give you a few symptoms of my almost hopeless case.

In the winter of 1850, I was attacked with a severe pain, which was gradually extending through the way.

In the winter of 1850, I was attacked with a severe pain, which was gradually extending through the whole right side and leg; at the same time, a total prostration of my physical system; also, my leg had shrunk to about two thirds of its common size. I produced the attend ance of a skilful practitioner, who pronounced my disease one of the worst forms of liver complaint. He said my care was one not easily handled, but prescribed for me. I remained under his treatment until I was satisfied the could not help me. I then procured of your agent at this place, W. A. Beers, two bottles of Guysott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparitle, from which I received a vast amount of benefit. After having taken four bottles more I was able to pursue my business without any inconvenience, and have been since that time a well man, while but a short time since I was confined to my bed three fourths of the time; and I cannot ascribe the return of ourths of the time; and I cannot ascribe the retu n ruiy valuable medicine, Gnysott's Yellow Dock an arsaparilla.

HASSEL VAURIPER. Sarsaparilla.

SALINE, Oct. 14, 1851.

MR. J. D. PARK—Dear Sir: I send you the foregoing ertificate, and so far as I am acquainted with his case, is all true. I procured it, thinking it might be a benefit to you and to the afficted. You have the privilege o using it as you think best. Yours, W. A. BEERS.

The following letter is from a highly respectable Physician, who enjoys an extensive practice:

NAVABER, stark CO, O., Nov. 1, 1851.

DR. JOHN D. PARK — Dear Sir: "Or. Guysott's Hxract of Sarsaparilla." This medicine has been prescribed by me for the last three years, with good effect, in general debility, Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic and Nervous Diseases. In all Female Complaints it certainly is unequaled.

In the use of this medicine the patient constantly gains strength and vigor, a fact worthy of great consideration.

It is pie-sant to the taste and smell, and can be used by persons with the most delicate stomachs, with safety under any circumstances. I am speaking from experience, and to the afflicted I advise its use.

DR. J. S. LBEF ER.

EXTRACT OF A LETTER FROM AN EXTEN-SIVE MERCHANT IN NUENAH, WIS.

MR. JOHN D. PARK — Dear Sir: 1 am out of you "Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry," and "Dr. Guyot Extract of Yellow D. 6k and Sarsaparilla." Please fo

Extract of Yellow D. ck and Sarsaparilla." Please for ward a supply immediately.

Your Baisam of Wild Cherry worked to a charm here; not a bottle failed of afford ng immediate relief, and in every instance but one (an old gentleman 71 years of age) it cured, and the Yellow Dock has done equally well. I took three bottles mysell last fall, and enloyed perfect health last winter, for the first winter for eleven years, being troubled with a severe eruption of the skin which laid me up fron two weeks to four months every winter and spring until last winter.

Henry E. Jones, a brocher merchant and a particular friend of mine, took two bottles of the Yellow Dock for a Scrofulous Eruption, which has worked an entire cure.

My store is corner of Wisconsin Avenue and Walnut street. Yours, Respectfully, Yours, Respectfully, CHARLES E. CASE.

Engine.
Professor John C. F. Salomon, after twenty-six years of close observation upon the experiments of his own and of others in attempts to make the principle of the condensation of carbonic and gas available as a mechanic motor, has perfected the same; and, having jost received letters patent for his 'Improved Carbonic Acid Engine,' now offers to dispose of rights for the use thereof to the United States government, and to individuals or to companies, the rights of States, counties, or cities.

viduals or to companies, the rights of States, counties, or cities.

The immense saving of money and labor, and of human lives and suffering, secured by the use of this new motor, wit inevisably insure its speedy adoption in all places where steam power is now used, and in thousands of other places where the great expense, bulk, and weight of the steam engine has precluded its use.

This new motor may be applied to all purposes as a propelling agent, from the single horse power for the cotten gin to the two thousand horse power for ocean steamers, with the expenseless than that required by the steam engine, of bothers and furnaces, used and fremen, and of bulk and weight -100 tons weight sufficing or the same power of 1,200 tons of the steam engine.

These facts are established by the experimental engine of twenty five (25) horse power, now "working well?" at Cincinnati, a noticed in the following from the Cincinnati Nonparell, of the 18th inst.:

"We are pleased to state that J.C. F. Salsmon, late of this City, has received a patent for his motor of carbonic "We are pleased to state that J. C. F. From Mr. Royae, of New Albany, Indiana, inventor of a new agricultural wonder, a Rotatory Plose Washingtons, Jan. 30, 1852.

Mr. Elder-Sir: I cheerfully avail myself or this opportunity to give you a few brief streaments in reference to Professor Salomon's New Mechanical Motor, as it is your request, as well as a duty I owe my country. The facts are the following as near as I now recollect:

I arrived at Circomati on the Str. of October, 1851, and on the following day I called to see Professor Salomon's New Mechanical Motor, of which I had read accounts in the public papers. I was desirous to see the engine, from the fact that I had fir some time previous been studying to nake some principle applicable as a motive power to machinery. I was asto ished and delighted in witnessing the construction and operation of the engine. I saw my embodied idea before me more perfect than I had conceived.

I witnessed the operation for near an hour. It was uniform and perfect, and of sufficient power to lift a weight of 12,100 pounds 56 times in a minute. This power was applied to turn the machinery of the shop, and appeared to be equal to sie in engines commonly essed in machine shops. The whole length of this engine is about 12 or 15 feet, and I suppose its weight might be about five or six tons. The furnace is a small sheet from pan, the size of my hat, and held about a double hendful of charcoal. The machinery is not more complicated than that of the steam engine, the principle of construction and operation being the same. This was estimated to be a 25 horse power engine, of which I have given you a brief description.

I am not pecuniarly interested in the success of the invention. I never expected to be called upon to make any statements in reference to it. I have had no previous acquaintaice with Professor Salomon, and never saw him, to my knowledge, until I met him in this city on yes; error and promonic forman shift, wit

We learn that two hands were lost overhoard from the steamer Jamestown, on her last trip from New Orleans to this place; one named Natchez, and the other named Edward Wade, family in New Orleans.

The steamer Os wego, which sunk a few days ago below Cape Girardeau, was insured in St. Louis for $3,000. She was owned principally by Capt. Battelle, her commander.

By a series of sub-marine explo sions under various portions of the machinery. he has deepened the water to such an exwreck with perfect safety, although when he arrived, there was not over two feet of water above the various portions of the machinery, such as wheels, cranks, shaft, and the timbers of the sunken vessel. He has removed nearly can. all of her machinery, and is now rapidly break ing the hull of the vessel in pieces, and hoisting them to the surface of the water. During ensuing summer he hopes that he shall entirely remove her remains, and leave no vestige of the steamer in the harbor.

VIRGINIA INTERNAL IMPROVEMENTS .- A report on the subject of internal improvements of Virginia has recently been presented to the Legis lature of that State by a special committee. It recommends the completion of the following works, with as little delay as possible, viz: The Virginia and Tennessee, the Danville, the Southside, the Orange and Alexandria, and the Manassa Gap Railroads. The Committee present estimates of the cost of completion of these improvements, and recommend appropri ations to accomplish that purpose -the State is to subscribe three fifths of the sums necessary. as follows, viz: Virginia and Tennessee Rail road $750,000: State subscription, $450,000: Danville Railroad $600,000; State subscription, $360,000; Southside Railroad $600,000; Orange and Alexandria Railroad $120,000: State sub scription, $252,000; Manassa Gan Railroad $100,000. Total amount State subscription. $1,822,000.

REMONSTRANCE AGAINST THE MAINE LAW .-The liquor dealers in New York have despatched a remonstrance to Albany, setting forth the reasons why the Maine Liquor Law should not be attempted to be forced upon New York .-The proposed law, to that end, is denounced 17 sec. It was seen at Cambridge, Mass., on as audacious, unscrupulous, and fanatical, and the 13th. calculated to retaid, rather than advance, even encourage.

Most significant of all, however, the remon strants assure the Legislature that they are sol emnly convinced "that such a despotic and unreasonable law could not be enforced in the city of New York, except amid scenes of riot and bloodshed, in which, though its reckless advocates would be the first and chief sufferers, vast multitudes of the populace would be involved, and which would be too frightful in their rewithout horror and dismay."

DESTRUCTIVE EFFECTS OF THE COLD TO VEGE-TATION -The late severely cold weather, which with another man came in and remained a short extended over a range of country unusually time. Soon after their departure, the watch large, has had a very unfavorable effect upon trees and ornamental shrubbery have suffered offer to sell the watch. Some of the test and they were held to bail in $1000 each to anpeach trees are entirely killed, and many ex tensively injured, while the apple, pear, plum, apricot, fig, and even the forest trees, are all injured to some extent by the cold. The grape vines also have lost much of their last season' growth. Large crops of potatoes, not protect ed against the unusual cold have been destroyed In the Middle and Northern States, where the root crops are housed, there probably has not been so much injury-inflicted upon them.

THE VICTIMS OF THE STEAMER AMAZON. subscription has been made throughout Eng land for the benefit of the widows and orphans left by the destruction of the Amezon. The Queen contributed £150 sterling, and it was hoped $50,000 would be raised. It is also stated that a subscription will be originated in New York for the benefit of the sufferers. Subscriptions were raised in Prance also.

She seemed a little taken aback by this speech, but was wonderfully firm. She passed her white, jewelled hand over her eyes, seemed calculating, and then whispered, with a confiding look of inno cent helplessness, admirably assumed "About as many as amount to twelve hundred pounds.

"And what means have you for meeting

At this question, so plainly put, her face flushed. She half rose from her chair, and exclaimed, in the true tone of aristocratic hauteur:- "Really, sir, I do not know what right you have to ask me that question."

I laughed a little, though not very loud It was rude, I own; but who could have helped it? I replied, speaking low; but slowly and distinctly:- "You forget. I did not send for you; you came to me .--You have forged bills to the amount of twelve hundred pounds. Yours is not the case of a ruined merchant, or an ignorant over tempted clerk. In your case a jury. [she shuddered at that word] "would fin d no extenuating circumstances; and if you should fall into the hands of justice, you will be convicted, degraded, clothed in a prison dress, and transported for life. do not want to speak harshly; but I insist that you find means to take up the bill which Mr. Axminister has so unwittingly endorsed!"

The Honorable Miss Snape's grand manner melted away. She wept. She seized and pressed my hand. She cast up her eyes, full of tears, and went thro' the part of a repentant victim with great fervor. She would do any thing; anything in the world to save the poor man. Indeed, she had intended to appropriate part of the two hundred pound bill to that purpose. She forgot her first statement, that she wanted the money to go out of town. Without interrupting, I let her go on and degrade herself by a simulated passion of repentance, regret, and thankfulness to me, under which she hid her fear and her mortification at being detected. "But she exclaimed, with an entreating air "I have no money; I cannot go without money!" To that observation I did not respond; although I am sure she expected that I should, check-book in hand, offer her a loan. I do not say so without reason; for the very next week, this honorable young lady came again, and, with sublime assurance and a number of very charming, winning speeches which might have had their effect upon a younger man, asked me to lend her one hundred pounds in order that she might take the advice I had so obligingly given her, and retire into private life for a contribution of the property of the property of the property of the property and the property of the property and property of the property doubt, feel bound to come forward with I had so obligingly given her, and retire into private life for a certain time in the country. Yes, she could, and did actually write down the names of three distingulshed men. Now I knew for certain, that not one of those noblemen would have put his name to a bill on any account whatever for his dearest friend; but, in her unabashed self-confidence, she thought of passing another forgery on me. I closed the conference by saying "I cannot assist you;" and she retired with the air of an injured person. In the course of a few days, I heard from Mr. Amminister, that his liability of one hundred pounds had been duly honored.

In my active and exciting life, one day extinguishes the recollection of the events of the preceding day; and, for a time, I thought no more about the fashionable forger. I had taken it for granted that, heartily frightened, although not repent.
